county is situated, he shall make examination of all applicants to teach and when duly satisfied of their competency shall grant them a certificate.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

Provided. That said superintendent with one of said persons so appointed shall constitute a quorum of said examining board. Said certificates shall be of three grades, and such examination shall be necessary, for the three grades as the Territorial superintendent shall designate, and in school districts where the only language spoken is Spanish the teacher shall have a knowledge of both English and Spanish. Each member of said examining board shall receive five dollars per diem and no more for his services, to be paid from the county school funds.

SEC. 14. That whenever a school district shall be formed in any county the county superintendent shall within fifteen days thereafter prepare and post a notice of the formation of such district, describing its boundaries and stating the number thereof, and appointing a time and place for the first district meeting, and shall also furnish the county clerk with the description and boundaries of each school district as soon as practicable after the same is formed. He shall on or before the fifteenth day of October of each year make out and transmit in writing to the Territorial superintendent, bearing date of October 1st, a report containing a statement of the number of school districts in the county, and the number, age and sex of children residing in each, over five and under twenty-one years of age, the number of schools in the county, the length of time each school has been taught, the number, age and sex of pupils attending the same, the number and sex of teachers employed, branches taught, and text books used; the number of private or select schools or academies in the county, so far as the same can be ascertained, the number, age and sex of pupils and teachers employed, and the branches taught in each, the amount of public money received in each district, the amount of money raised by taxes and paid for teachers' salaries, in addition to the amount of public money raised by tax or otherwise for the purpose of purchasing sites for school buildings, repairing and furnishing school houses, and such other information as the Territorial superintendent may desire.

Penalty for not making report.

SEC. 15. That every county superintendent who shall willfully neglect or refuse to make and deliver to the Territorial Superintendent his annual report as required by this act within the time limited therefor shall be liable on his bond for the full amount of money lost to the county by such neglect or refusal, with the interest thereon at twelve per centum per annum, to be recovered by the county treasurer in the name of the county, from the bondsmen of said superintendent.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

SEC. 16. That each of the school districts of the different counties as now constituted is hereby declared to be a school district, until changed under the provisions of this act, and there shall be established in each district one or more schools, in which shall be taught orthography, reading, writing, arithmetic, geography, the English language, grammar and the history of the United States.

SEC. 17. That each school district shall be a body corporate by the name and style of school district number of the county of and by such name may contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, in any of the courts of this Territory having competent jurisdiction; and every such district shall hold in the corporate name of the district, the title of lands and other property which may be required by said district for school purposes.

SEC. 18. That a new school district may be formed, or the boundaries of any district changed, by the county superintendent, on petition of a majority of the electors residing within the proposed district: Provided, however, that after the boundaries of any district have been legally established and bonds voted, then and in that case there shall be an equitable division of the assets and liabilities of the original district.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS.

SEC. 19. That on the second Monday of May, 1891, the present county school superintendents of the respective counties shall cause to be posted notices in at least three public places in each school district calling an election to be held for three school directors of said district, on the first Monday in June following; said election to be held by three property holders in said district, to be named in said notice, and after said election is held the three directors elected shall hold office for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified, and the judges of election shall certify the result to the county superintendent; on the second Monday of May of each succeeding year the directors serving at the time shall post notices of an election to be held by them on the first Monday in June by the qualified voters, for three school directors whose term shall be one year. Only legal voters, residing and paying taxes in said district, shall be qualified to vote at said election; the votes shall be by written or printed ballots and the election shall be held between the hours of eight a. m. and five p. m. on the first Monday of June at the public school house or some other convenient place, to be specified in said notice; the result of said election shall be certified by said directors to the county superintendent and the term of office of said directors shall begin on the first Monday of July following their election. The directors so elected shall take and file with the county superintendent, before the first Monday of July, an oath that they will faithfully perform the duties of their office; said oath shall be administered by the judges holding the election first provided for

SEC. 33. That the county superintendent, the president of the school district, and some competent person, the county surveyor should there be one appointed by the county commissioners, shall constitute the board, whose duty it shall be to establish corners, boundary lines, and draw the map contemplated in section 32 of this act; the expense of such proceeding to be charged to the county wherein the district is situated and to be allowed by the board of county commissioners thereof and not to exceed the sum of ten dollars for each district.

ASSESSMENT.

County assessor to make same on special tax levy.

Copy of lists of taxable property.

SEC. 34. That in any school district where a special tax is in contemplation of being levied, or of bonds being issued, and after the boundaries of the district have been properly determined and marked for that purpose, it shall be the duty of the county assessor to visit said district and make an assessment of all taxable property, both personal and real, within said school district, as fully and completely as he is now required to make the assessment of the county, and he shall be governed by the same rules, especially including in such assessment all kinds of live stock which graze wholly within the limits of such district. The county assessor shall provide each board of district directors with a copy of such lists of taxable property, in the several districts.

TEMPORARY FUNDS.

SEC. 35. That the following are hereby declared to be and remain temporary funds for common school purposes:

First. The proceeds of all sales of intestate estates which escheat to the Territory.

Second. All forfeitures or recoveries on bonds of county, precinct or Territorial school officers.

Third. The proceeds of all fines collected for violation of the penal laws.

Fourth. The proceeds of the sales of lost goods or estrays.

Fifth. All moneys arising from licenses imposed upon wholesale and retail liquor dealers, distillers, breweries, wine-presses, gambling tables or games of chance, which now pay license or may hereafter be required to pay license.

All the moneys arising from the above enumerated sources when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury to the account of the several school districts, wherein such sums are collected, officers collecting and paying in the same taking the county treasurer's receipt therefor. Should there be more than one school district in any precinct, said amount collected shall be divided among the several school districts pro rata, according to the scholastic census of said district, as furnished to the county school superintendent for the current year.

Amended by section 1, chapter LIX, Laws 1892-3.

POLL TAX.

SEC. 36. That a poll tax of one dollar shall be levied upon all able bodied male persons over the age of twenty-one years for school purposes. It shall be the duty of the county assessor to make out separate lists of all persons liable to pay a poll tax in each district and certify the same to the clerks of the several school districts, whose duty it shall be to collect the same, and said clerks shall receive ten per centum of all moneys collected from poll taxes. The district clerks are hereby empowered to bring suit in the name of the district for the collection of the same, if not paid within sixty days after said lists have been received by the treasurer.

County assessor to make poll tax lists. (See sec. 38, this chapter.)

Clerk of school district to collect tax and bring suit.

Provided, It shall be illegal for any person to vote at any election who has not paid his poll tax for the current year, and said payment must be made in case of a general election one day previous to such election day.

Proviso.

Amended by section 2, chapter II, Session Laws 1893. School district clerks to make copy of poll tax lists and post same.

District clerks report on poll tax.

SEC. 37. That it shall be the duty of the district clerks to make at least one copy of the poll tax lists as soon as received from the county assessor and post them up in some conspicuous place in their districts for the information of the people, and on or before the first Monday of April the district clerks shall report to the county superintendent in writing the amount of poll tax collected, from whom collected, the names of persons still delinquent, and the reason for the delinquency.

SEC. 38. That on and after this act goes into effect it shall be the duty of the county assessor to make separate rolls of the poll tax list for the several school districts, and the said poll tax shall be collected as provided by this act.

Each of said boards of regents shall hold at least four meetings during each year at their respective Normal Schools for the purpose of discharging their duties under this act, the time of such meetings to be fixed by such board, and the president of such board may call special meetings thereof when in his judgment the business of such schools demands the same. Three members of such boards shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
Power of respective boards.	SEC. 6. Said boards of regents shall have full and complete power and control over their respective Normal Schools. Each board shall employ a superintendent or principal for such school who shall have the supervision and control of the school under such rules and regulations as may be provided by such board. Such board shall determine and provide as to what branches of learning shall be taught in such school and the classification and order of the same, and shall also direct the number of teachers that shall be employed, and shall determine the compensation to be paid to the superintendent and teachers. Such board shall also prescribe upon what terms and conditions pupils shall be admitted to such school, but no pupils shall be admitted who are not residents of this Territory.

SEC. 7. The president of each board shall preside at all meetings thereof and shall sign the proceedings of the same, and shall sign all orders directed by the board to be drawn upon the treasurer thereof for the payment of money. In the absence of the president at any meeting of the board the members present shall elect a president pro tem.

Duties of President.

The secretary of the board shall have charge of the records, books, and papers belonging to such board, and shall keep a record of the proceedings of such board; and shall issue and attest all orders directed by the board to be drawn upon the treasurer of the same for the payment of money. Such secretary, as treasurer, shall have the care and custody of all moneys belonging to such school, and he shall pay out the same only upon orders drawn upon him by direction of the board of regents and signed by the president thereof; and at each regular meeting of such board such treasurer shall submit to the same a statement showing a full account of the condition of financial affairs of such school.

Duties of Secretary.

SEC. 8. The members of the respective boards of regents shall be entitled to the sum of two dollars per day during the time they shall be employed in the actual discharge of their duties, and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going to and returning from their places of residence to the place of meeting of such board, but the person who is elected as secretary and treasurer of such board shall be entitled to receive three dollars per day during the sessions of such board, and mileage as above provided.

Per diem pay and mileage.

SEC. 9. For the purpose of erecting buildings for such schools, furnishing the same, improving the grounds and maintaining such schools, the Auditor of the Territory shall cause to be levied upon all taxable property in the Territory during the year commencing on the 4th day of March, 1893, and ending on the 3rd day of March, 1894, a tax of two-fifths of one mill, which levy shall be collected during the same year and applied to the above appropriation. Five thousand dollars of said sum shall be available for each of said schools for the purposes specified herein on the first day of January, 1894, and the balance of said levy so collected on the 4th day of March, 1894, and shall be paid upon presentation to the Treasurer of the Auditor's warrant, which shall be issued upon an order from

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

AN ACT ENTITLED AN ACT TO ADJUST AND SETTLE CERTAIN OUTSTANDING SCHOOL INDEBTEDNESS IN THE DIFFERENT COUNTIES OF THE TERRITORY OF NEW MEXICO. C. B. 83; Approved February 23, 1893.

ADJUSTMENT AND SETTLEMENT OF OUTSTANDING SCHOOL INDEBTEDNESS.

WHEREAS, Prior to the passage of the present school law of the Territory of New Mexico, in several counties of said Territory the expense of the schools had been paid by school superintendents of the county drawing warrants upon the county treasurer, instead of the fund being distributed among the different districts of the county and the warrants being drawn upon the district treasuries; and

WHEREAS, County treasurers have refused to pay many of said warrants which are alleged to have been given in good faith for services actually rendered and supplies actually furnished said schools; and

WHEREAS, The holders of said warrants are practically without any remedy for collection of the same or any part thereof;

Be it Enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico:

To bring suits for recovery in district courts.

SECTION 1. That the holders of any school warrants in this Territory, issued by county school superintendents prior to the 26th day of February, A. D. 1891, be and they are hereby authorized to bring suit in the district court for the county in which said warrants were issued against the school districts and the county for the purpose of adjusting and determining the genuineness of said warrants and the fact that the same were issued for services actually rendered or supplies actually furnished for the use of the schools of said county.

Warrant holders may unite.

SEC. 2. Any part or all of said warrant holders may unite in the same suit as complainants and both the county and all the school districts thereof shall be made defendants in such suit, and such suit shall be brought on the chancery side of the court in the nature of a bill in equity for an accounting, and the district court shall take jurisdiction of the same and it shall be the duty of the district attorney to appear and defend said suits for the county and the school districts or either or any of them shall be allowed to employ additional counsel.

Suits to be brought in chancery.

Duty of District Attorney.

Service of process.

SEC. 3. The county shall be described as the board of county commissioners and process shall be served upon said board as now provided by law, and the process upon the school districts shall be served by delivering a subpœna or summons issued as in ordinary cases upon the school superintendent of the county and the respective chairman of the school boards, whose duty it shall be to at once notify the proper district attorney, who shall enter his appearance in answer to said subpœna or summons and defend such suit as hereinbefore provided.

Proceedings. Statement of account.

SEC. 4. The proceedings in said cause shall be the same as in ordinary chancery cases, and upon a statement of account by the master in chancery a decree shall be rendered therein determining the amount of such indebtedness, who is entitled to receive the same, whether the original persons to whom said warrants were issued or by whom said services were rendered, or supplies furnished, or the assignee thereof, and how much the holder thereof is lawfully entitled to receive for the same, and thereupon a decree or judgment shall be rendered in favor of said persons for the amount of the indebtedness so claimed against the county or district liable; and the amount of such decree shall be paid out of the county school fund where the warrant is a county debt, or out of the proper district fund where the warrant represents a district indebtedness, and if the same are insufficient to pay such indebtedness it shall by the duty of the county commissioners or district school directors to levy a sufficient tax at the time the general taxes are levied and cause the same to be levied in like manner and at the same time that general taxes are collected for the purpose of satisfying and paying off such decree or tax.

Decree.

Payment.

General taxes.

SEC. 5. The holders of any such warrants who may procure any such decree in their favor may at their option accept bonds, interest bearing obligations, to bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, and due in ten years, payable in five years, in satisfaction of such indebtedness, in lieu of causing the amount thereof to be levied and collected as provided for in the foregoing section.

Payment at option of holders.

SEC. 6. The costs of any such suit authorized by this act shall be divided equally by the court between the complainants in such suit and the defendant, not including attorney's fee, but including the fees of the district attorney, who shall be allowed such reasonable compensation as the court may in its discretion fix, not to exceed five per cent. of the amount recovered or involved in the suit: Provided, however, That if no judgment or decree should be rendered in favor of the complainant or complainants, then the whole of the costs of such suit shall be paid by the complainant or complainants.

Costs of suit

SEC. 7. This act shall apply to suits now pending or any which may be hereafter brought.

Application.

SEC. 8. This act shall be in force and effect from and after its passage.

CHAPTER XXXIX.
